1. Welcome and Introduction

Welcome and congratulations on making the commitment to becoming a certified dog trainer. This program will prepare you for various occupations or careers within the Animal Care Industry. Whether you want to be a dog trainer, dog walker, animal care attendant, dog daycare worker, shelter kennel attendant, or just further your education relating to dogs, then you have come to the right place.

We are the only academy in BC that offers an in person classroom, and hands-on training in real life training scenarios with clients. The curriculum was designed using guidelines from the Association of Professional Dog Trainers (APDT.com) and from Amber Cottle's years of experience working with client dogs and shelter dogs needing behaviour training and modification. Amber has over 20 years and 16,000 hours of professional experience and hundreds of hours of formal training including numerous certifications. The courses in this program are comprehensive and are based on proven techniques combined with behavioral science and learning theory. We look forward to sharing our knowledge and skills with you and your fellow classmates over the coming months.

You will be working with some great fellow students and wonderful dogs. Upon graduation, you will join the world of dog training and establish standards of excellence in your field. Graduates of Dog Behavior and Training Level 1 will be "certified dog trainers" from the "International Academy of Canine Trainers". You will be able to use the letters IACT-CDT after your name. Graduates of Canine Behavior Specialist Level 2 will be able to use the letters IACT-CDT-Beh. This certification is not only a mark of achievement for you, it is also a clear signal to others that your training and teaching have reached a standard of excellence that this Academy is proud to stand behind.

Your instructors are always available to help you move through the program smoothly. Please don't hesitate to ask for additional help if needed. We hope you and your dogs will find the experience exciting, and fun!

8. Keys for Success

➤ Planning your time and staying on track

- You will need to review the previous unit before your next class in order to pass the quiz.
- The Subject List outlines all the components in each Module so you can see all the upcoming lessons and mark your progress. You can enter a completion date for each Lesson and Workshop.

- Successful Workshops and Lectures: Your Practical training and lectures are an integral part of your course. Here's how to make the most of the Practical Workshops and Lectures:
 - When required, plan to bring a dog to the practical workshops that you've worked with during the home exercises, as you will be demonstrating behaviors for your teacher. If you do not have a dog, the instructor will provide one.
 - If you do have to miss a workshop or lecture because of an unavoidable event, contact your instructor and let them know in advance. The instructor will either be able to provide detailed notes of the class, or possibly audio and video recordings.
 - Makeup workshops or lectures may be coordinated through the Academy. There may be an additional charge for make-up sessions. Please see the Attendance Policy in the Handbook.
 - In the event that the instructor is ill or otherwise unable to conduct a scheduled Workshop, the instructor will reschedule the session as needed, in which case the Academy will make reasonable efforts to accommodate students' schedules.
 - Be well prepared. The expected preparation for Workshops or Lectures is to review the previous Lessons.
 - Approach every Workshop or Lecture as a learning experience. You will teach others and learn from others each time you are together. How you participate in the Workshop or Lecture is an important part of the teacher's assessment of your performance.

- Performance feedback: You will get frequent feedback during the course. If you feel you are not getting feedback, it is your responsibility to let us know and help us give you more. There are several primary mechanisms for formal feedback:
 - Quizzes will be returned to the student at the beginning of the next lesson. You can see questions you answered correctly and comments on where you need to re-address the subject.

 - Practical Workshop feedback from your instructor in written and video format
 - If there are performance concerns indicated or if you have additional questions, you can schedule time during your instructor's office hour
